and learning. The program will accelerate fellows' experience, develop leadership capabilities, and provide broad exposure to the wealth and asset management industry in China. Through rotational assignments in various roles throughout the wealth management, asset management, global product platform, and internet finance arms within Noah, as well as training, fellows will acquire a diverse set of skills, an understanding of the business, and will be able to leverage developing capacities into practical and strategic results.

The Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada (APF Canada) has been a strong advocate for the importance of young Canadians getting work experience in Asia. Through this program, students will receive valuable work and cultural experience in Hong Kong, along with a C$7,000 award to cover travel and living costs. In return, the students will become 'ambassadors' and advocates for the importance to other Canadian youth of getting first-hand experience in Asia. They will do this through speaking engagements and/or writing for the APF Canada blog about their own experiences.
