

The Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada invites you to attend:

Will Asia Continue to Lead Global Economic Growth?

The Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada invites you to attend a public forum that will explore whether Asia can continue to be the engine of global economic growth. Panel speakers include several highly respected economics scholars from around the Asia Pacific region. Questions framing the discussion will include: What will it take for China to move up the value chain? Can Indonesia escape the middle income trap? What is the future of India's economic reform? What is the US's motivation behind the TPP and the Asia 'Pivot'? And, to which specific countries or sub-regions should Canada pay especially close attention?

Wednesday, June 6, 5:00-6:30 pm
Reception to follow

Morris J. Wosk Centre for Dialogue, Asia-Pacific Hall
580 West Hastings Street, Vancouver

(See map: <http://www.sfu.ca/mecs/wosk+dialogue+centre/location.html>)

Speakers:

Dr. M. Chatib Basri, University of Indonesia, and Vice-Chairman, National Economic Committee of the President of the Republic of Indonesia (Indonesia)

Dr. Peter Petri, Carl J. Shapiro Professor of International Finance, Brandeis University (US)

Dr. Yao Yang, Director, China Center for Economic Research, and Deputy Dean, National School of Development (China)

Dr. Shekhar Shah, Director General, National Council of Applied Economic Research (India)

Moderator:

Professor Wendy Dobson, Senior Fellow, Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada and Professor, Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto

RSVP by Tuesday, June 5 to eventreservations@asiapacific.ca.