

Summary

Nimbyx, a Vancouver-based leader in digital healthcare, is looking for a technology intern for May-August 2019 for its office in Metro Manila, the Philippines. The ideal candidate would be: interested in a career in technology, start-ups, or healthcare; pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, Computer Engineering, Management Information Systems, or a related technical discipline with emphasis on computer programming; and passionate about learning about how to succeed in one of Southeast Asia's fastest growing and most dynamic markets.

This internship is part of the Philippines Connect program, a partnership between Nimbyx and the Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada (APF Canada). Through programs like these, APF Canada and its partners aim to help young Canadians build the knowledge and skills that will help them compete in the Asian Century.

Who we are:

- Nimbyx is a Vancouver-based, fast growing industry leader in digital healthcare, with an office in Metro Manila, the Philippines.
- In 2017, we were recognized by the Globe and Mail as one of five companies that took successful action in a competitive global digital economy.
- Our founder, Paolo Kalaw, was recently profiled by Business in Vancouver in an article highlighting the digital disruption currently rippling through the healthcare industry.
- Three words to describe our team: young, talented and entrepreneurial. We value collaboration between our teams and growth for our employees.

About our Manila office (check out the pictures below):

- Young and dynamic team.
- Located in Bonifacio Global City (BCG), a financial and lifestyle district in Metro Manila. It shares a neighborhood with global and Canadian brands such as Google, Sun Life, Unilever, Nissan, JPMorgan Chase, and others.
- Our office in a beautiful high-rise building gives you a bird's-eye view of Metro Manila.
- One of the fastest growing markets in Southeast Asia, one of the world's most dynamic regions.
- Coffee shops, parks and gyms right at your door step.
- Office culture and socials: Our team enjoys getting together for challenging team-building activities such as escape rooms, basketball games and the occasional competitive game on the office xbox.

What we offer:

- A four-month, full time internship working in our beautiful Manila office.

- Mentorship under our senior engineers that will help your professional and personal growth.
- Learning on the job, the ability to take complete ownership of your work, and the opportunity to have direct impact on our user experience.
- C$8,000 compensation to cover travel and living expenses in Manila.
- Assistance with your Visa application.
- A fun and dynamic team that you will want to be a part of.

Apply if you:

- Plan to grow your career in technology.
- Are pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, Computer Engineering, Management Information Systems, or a related technical discipline with emphasis on computer programming.
- Are proficient in at least one programming language or technology, including, but not limited to, C#, .NET, Javascript, HTML, CSS and Objective-C.
- Have working knowledge of Object Oriented Programming and Software Development Life Cycles (SDLC).
- Value being a team player and want to build a collaborative work culture.
- Focus on detail and like being organized.
- Like your life to be full of excitement, fast-paced growth and adventure.

What your day at Nimbyx looks like:

- You ask thoughtful questions to ensure you are solving the right problems.
- You have a quick daily stand-up meeting to sync with your scrum team.
- You take ownership of your work and are open to peer feedback on coding standards, principles and patterns.
- You can be depended on to proactively communicate your progress to stakeholders and ensure timely project delivery.
- You value reliability, ensured by automated testing (unit, integration and load tests).
- You participate in code reviews to ensure code quality, continuous integration and deployment
- You adapt easily to meet the needs of our rapidly evolving business environment
